[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO NOVEMBER 16.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Secretary Welles is slowly recovering.

The Attorney General has published an opinion in the newspapers presumed to be unofficial, regarding an additional session of the Fortieth Congress. He quotes provisions of the Constitution in relation to the meeting of Congress, and thinks all sessions held prior to the first Monday in December, are irregular, except those convened by the President. The new Congress cannot convene before that day, unless convened by the President, unless Congress by law appoints a different day, which has not yet been done. The Constitution nowhere provides for any except regular sessions, unless convened by the President.

Gen. Hancock leaves for New Orleans.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.—General Hancock and staff left for New Orleans to-day to assume command of the Department of the Gulf.

Progress of the Pacific Railroad.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 15.—The Union Pacific Railroad is completed to this city. Upon the arrival of the construction train, an impromptu demonstration was made by the citizens in honor of the auspicious event.

Funding the Debt.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A Tribune's special says that Senator Sherman intends to introduce a bill, converting the maturing debt into a large consolidated loan of not less than thirty years, of six per cent., with one per cent. tax, making it equivalent to a five per cent. loan.

Weston's Feat.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Weston, the pedestrian, started at 10:30 last night on his third trial of a walk of one hundred miles in twenty-four hours. He made the first fifty miles in ten hours and five minutes. Upon his arrival at Crescent, a little after 6 o'clock, his feet were so badly swollen that he abandoned the attempt. The excitement over Weston's walk is very great throughout the country. He met with [illegible] everywhere.

Miscellaneous.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 16.—The Council by a vote of 22 to 6 passed resolutions opposing a further contraction of the currency and in favor of paying in greenbacks all bonds not made, payable in gold.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—A Times special says an effort is proposed by the Western Republicans to elect a new clerk in the House in place of McPherson.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The Herald's Havana special says of the late hurricane at Porto Rico, it was more severe than any of the terrible gales which had previously visited the island. 30,000 houses were laid in ruins, 3,000 were severely damaged, and entire streets were demolished. There is no news from the interior. Every living creature, man and animal, on the island of Tortuga, perished.

The Herald's Richmond special says that Hunnicutt had an interview with Chief Justice Chase and received a severe castigation for his extreme Radical utterances. Chase said he mistook [illegible] the party and brought it into discredit.

A Herald's Washington special says [illegible] that the negroes of his [illegible] are [illegible] armed and had the whites at a great disadvantage. It is probable some measures will be taken to prevent a dangerous use by the negroes of their [illegible] in arms and organization.

A Times special says that the best Republicans here at Washington do not agree with Attorney General Stanberry's opinion against the legality of the called meeting of Congress.

OTTAWA, C. W., Nov. 16.—A large fire occurred here last night, causing a loss of $800,000.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Nov. 16.—A freight train on the Ogdensburg and Champlain railway was thrown off the track to-day. The engine and five cars went down the embankment. A brakeman was killed.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The steamer [illegible], from Vera Cruz, Oct. 31, brings several [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] with [illegible] relative to the [illegible] resources of the Republic of Mexico.

Prince Salm Salm has been sent to Vera Cruz and will be placed in confinement.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

[illegible], Nov. 16.—The [illegible] has [illegible] to place all the [illegible] lines in [illegible] the central of the Postoffice Department.

The hero Sheridan is not much given to speech making, as his brief and modest remarks while on his tour through the Northern States plainly show; but when the occasion demands it, he can make a most effective speech, as witness his oration at Winchester, Virginia:

Face the other way, boys; face the other way! We are going back to our camps. We are going to lick them out of their boots. Boys, this never should have happened if I had been here. I tell you it never should have happened. We are going to get a twist on them; will get the tightest twist on them yet that ever you saw. We'll have all those camps and cannon back again.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 18, 1867.

Shortening the Gap.

It is announced that the Union Pacific Railroad has reached Cheyenne. This town of a summer's growth is near the eastern base of the Black Hills. From it, Omaha and Salt Lake are at nearly equal distances. Cheyenne is the next station west of Julesburg, and it is hoped that before the winter sets in so as to prevent further work, the Black Hills will be fairly reached. About half the length of the route of the Union Pacific is already spanned; but the real difficulties are now to [illegible]. Owing to the ruggedness of the country, at [illegible] two, and perhaps three years, will be required to complete the remaining 500 miles to Salt Lake. Hitherto the road has traversed the level valley of the Platte, and the work has been pushed forward at an astonishing rate. Julesburg is the last station immediately on the Platte river. Here the road diverges from the main stream (the South Platte) and follows the Lodge Pole, one of its affluents. Cheyenne is nearly north of Denver and is probably about as near to that place as any point which is touched by the railroad. The nearest [illegible] of the road to Denver is therefore about 100 miles.

On the Western end of the road, the work is [illegible] forward with equal energy, though so far, in the face of much greater obstacles. The Central Pacific Company have passed the summit of the Sierra Nevada mountains, and when a gap of fifteen miles is [illegible], which is now already ready for the rails, the cars will run to the [illegible] of 136 miles from Sacramento. By far the most difficult portion of this [illegible] is completed; for, as the [illegible] Pacific will soon have passed the [illegible] the road to Salt [illegible] will be [illegible]. The heavy work of the Union Pacific will begin when that of the Central Pacific ends; so that the race for [illegible] will not [illegible] be so unequal. On this last [illegible] by the [illegible] Company ([illegible] east of the summit) the labor and [illegible] [illegible] a total [illegible] of nearly one [illegible] was fully [illegible] road [illegible]. This will give the Central [illegible] will an advantage over the Union Pacific, as the [illegible] will prevent work [illegible] for nearly half the year. The gap to [illegible] not now expected [illegible] probability that it will be [illegible] years.

W[illegible]—A Negro Outbreak.

It has been stated several times in the telegraphic [illegible] of late that there are apprehensions of an uprising of the negroes in the South. These statements come chiefly from Virginia, and the principal authority that is given for them is the New York Herald. The only place where there has been the least manifestation of rebellion is Richmond; and at that place there has been no more disturbance than very often attends political contests in every part of the country. Throughout the South the whites are twice as numerous as the blacks and the latter, [illegible] as the intelligence of the negro is said to be, they are intelligent enough to know that acts of violence on their part at this time would be most disastrous to them every way; for, with provocations of this sort added to the [illegible] which is manifested toward them by a large portion of the whites in all sections, the recoil against them would be terrible. Whites [illegible] with impunity at Memphis and New Orleans; but if negroes should [illegible] such [illegible] and cruelties upon whites, the vengeance of those who are naturally [illegible] would know no bounds. There are those who would be glad to witness the perpetration of acts of violence by the negroes, in order that it might redound to the advantage of their party. Any [illegible] on the part of the blacks would be hailed with delight by the Copperheads. It would afford them a fund of political capital which they would be sure to make the most of. Instead of fearing that there will be [illegible] in the South, they hope therefore that it will come to pass, for they know that there will be no general insurrection and they would gladly see a few lives sacrificed in riots instigated by negroes, for the sake of the political advantage which such occurrences would give their party. Better behavior is exacted of the negroes than is witnessed among the "ruling race," who so bitterly hate them, since it is quite pardonable for "D[illegible]" to murder "niggers," as was done in New York in 1863 and in New Orleans in 1866; but if the play were reversed, terrible would be the consequences. We hope and believe that the negroes will conduct themselves with more wisdom, moderation and mercy than their "Democratic" haters have exhibited toward them. So far, the negro has the better record. We trust he will not sully his good name.

McClellan and the Presidency.—A Washington special to the New York Tribune says: The Democratic managers sent word some time ago to General McClellan to return home, the object for which he was sent to Europe by the party having been accomplished. Accordingly he has as already noticed, taken passage in the Persia, and will be home in time for the campaign. He is to be the nominee of the party for President, with another ex-military man on the ticket for Vice President. The slate is all "fixed," and it is said by those who ought to know, that there is little probability that anything will occur to change it. Great reliance is placed upon the new society, the "Sons of Jackson," which is being actively recruited in all parts of the country, as an offset to the Grand Army of the Republic. A prominent Democratic member of Congress, from whom these facts were obtained, says that he looks for much rioting, and in all probability bloodshed, during the campaign, between these factions.

Leaves from the Interior of the State.

(FROM OUR TRAVELING CORRESPONDENT.)

Lafayette, Nov. 12, 1867.

I stayed over night at a house on the border of the "Soap Creek Confederacy." Soon after my arrival there, a messenger came in from the capital of the Confederacy, and after passing a few words about the weather, he gave vent to a deep sigh, and said "I hear bad news." I asked him what it was. He said that he had "just heard over there at Mr. [illegible]'s store (in the Confederacy) that the President had ordered out troops, and that Congress had ordered out troops, and and that they were going to war with each other." I told him I thought the report must be untrue, as Congress was not in session, and would not be for several weeks. "Well," said he, "that is the news over there, and the people are very much excited about it." The Democratic papers might get many [illegible] items by tapping Soap Creek with an express line.

BUENA VISTA

Is the largest town on the river in Polk county. It contains 50 or 60 dwelling houses, a good grist and saw mill, a hotel and livery stable, a number of stores and shops, and a stone-ware and pottery manufactory. This pottery establishment is an item of no small importance to our State, for it is turning her own clay into gold. The stone-ware made here is of the best quality, and the clay of which it is made, is of the best fire proof. This establishment belongs to Smith Bros. These gentlemen have already put a stop to the importation of this sort of ware into the State, and thereby retain within the State the gold that has heretofore been paid out for that article. I hope these gentlemen may be eminently successful, and may succeed in turning all the mud I encountered in the streets of Buena Vista into jars and jugs. Buena Vista is surrounded by a good country and nothing but a railroad running up the west side of the river can prevent it from becoming a smart town.

INDEPENDENCE

Is a thriving little town on the river a few miles below Buena Vista. Here I observed a large new warehouse, stores, shops, &c., and counted 10 or 12 new [illegible] erected.

MONMOUTH

Is two miles west of Independence, in the midst of a valley of almost unsurpassed fertility and beauty. But it is celebrated for nothing but its College, which is at present in an unprosperous condition, on account of the political snarl it has got into. "The Democrats won't send to school to [illegible]," I found that.

DALLAS

Has grown considerably since my last visit there, a year and a half ago. It is the county seat of Polk county, and is a town of some importance. I met here a number of old acquaintances, among whom was Capt. Lafolet. The Captain is a host, and he has his sleeves rolled up ready for the next campaign. The Union men of Polk are wide awake and are going to give that county to the Union cause by a hundred majority. And here let me say we are going to carry the next election in this State by a larger majority than we did at the last election. Two or three hundred of Price's army that voted at our last election, have gone back to Missouri, and about 500 Copperheads have left the State and gone to California and Mexico. During that time the immigration by sea has been considerable, a large majority of which are Union. Take courage then, Union men, you can win the next election easy if you will work.

On the road between Dallas and Salem is the little town of

"DIXIE."

Many correspondents are supposed to be able to give the origin of the names of towns, &c. Here is the best that I can do towards explaining the name of this: Dixie, Roxie and Dinah are favorite names among the negro women in the Southern States. Dixie, in particular. Now, it may be, that the founder of this town had at an early day "in weakness" for some sable Dixie, in memory of whom he may have named his town. It is a strongly Democratic place, and it may be that they all linger around this place for the same reason. From the beautiful valley of the LaCreole, I passed down the river through Eola, and on by the pleasant little "Spring Valley," and then over the high rolling "Polk county hills" to

BETHEL.

From the high hills near Bethel, I had a fine view of the Yamhill valley, whose broad prairies stretch away north and south and pierce the coast mountains, bending them far back towards the sea. This valley is next in extent to the great Albany prairie, and is perhaps superior in fertility. At Bethel there is another College, a very good building, but the establishment looks as if it might have a very scanty support. Oregon has about four times as many colleges, academies and high schools, as she can decently support. It would have been far better for the State, had the money that has been expended in building these institutions, been appropriated in building and supporting good common schools. Provide educational facilities for the masses, the rich can provide for themselves. From Bethel, I rode up through the "Salt Creek" district, thence over to "Sheridan," and then down the South Yamhill river, through a beautiful country, fourteen miles to

MCMINNVILLE.

Here I found the town trying to get on its sober lens, after the Democratic jubilee drunk of the previous evening. Ben Hayden and others of his kidney, addressed the boozy crowd. McMinnville is a town of considerable size, and has a mill, a number of stores and shops, and another College. At

LAFAYETTE

I found Judge Boise holding court, the principal business of which seemed to be road suits and divorce cases. Five divorces were granted and one was continued. Last evening P. C. Sullivan, Esq., of Polk county, addressed a large Union meeting, at the Court House, on the political issues of the day. Mr. S. is a good speaker, and done himself and the cause ample justice. Yamhill is waking up, and will be on hand next June with her Union boys.

P. W. G.

Making History.—In Sheridan's speech at Albany, he said: "To my old comrades I may say that for the last few years we have been making history, and I hope that history will be good history, and that they will not have recorded in it that rebellion is honorable." This, says the Washington Chronicle, was the natural wish for the brave hero of a holy cause, who caught his inspiration from the noble principles of freedom. The honorable fame of a soldier is identified with the cause for which he struggles. If that cause fails of triumph, his victories have been futile. It is the sanctity of his cause which distinguishes the conscientious soldier from a robber chieftain or a ruthless invader. Truth and justice sanctify the force he wields, without which it is tyrannical and murderous. It is as the right hand of justice unsheathing her sword for the maintenance of order and the protection of right that the soul of a captain swells with that enthusiasm which makes a hero.

"IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH."—And as everybody is buying their Clothing of KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front Street, it must be a fact that cannot be denied that they have the Largest Stock of Clothing in the city, and sell at prices that defy competition. Ladies, too, are becoming convinced that at the ST. LOUIS STORE they find just such goods as they want, and at prices that make them smile when they return to their happy firesides.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

Copper Coins.—The liberal scale on which all money matters of this coast are conducted has never been favorable to the introduction of small coins or fractional currency of the United States. Many of the smaller denominations are so scarce as to be really curiosities and in stead of being circulated as of value they usually find their way into some collection of odd coins, shinplasters, [illegible] tickets, arrow heads, mineral specimens &c, etc. This has always been the case with the old [illegible] cents, and the exhibition of one of them calling up [illegible] at the East where they were an important element in the currency rarely ever fails to create a laugh and remarks of a contemptuous character. Of late years they have mostly disappeared, in consequence of their intrinsic value as copper, and the fact that the coinage of them ceased in 1858. The [illegible] cart wheel copper cents have therefore become to curiosity hunters, objects of great interest and [illegible] complete without them. In some cases, the coinage of a particular date, is sought for at great expense and trouble and large sums are freely [illegible] for a single cent. The best collection we have ever seen of copper cents, is owned by Mr W O Bruen of this city who has sixty three of them, each of a different date. The coins begin in date with 1794 and [illegible] one for each subsequent year to 1858 inclusive, with the exception of the year 1799 of which coinage there are perhaps not a dozen in existence outside of a [illegible], and 1815, during which year none were [illegible], numbering sixty two, have all the [illegible]. The sixty third coin is one of the ol[illegible] dated 1764. Mr Bruen has been [illegible] years engaged in making this collection and [illegible] it has cost him in time and money, probably more than one hundred times the circulating value of the coins.

[illegible] Pioneers.—The match game between the [illegible] and Pioneers, was played on Saturday on the grounds at East Portland commencing at 10 o clock A. M., and resulting as follows

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

OUR MOUNTAINEERS should test the merits of DR HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is a [illegible] as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many [illegible] are exposed to attacks of the digestive organs and of each [illegible] of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters are the [illegible] of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

And a voice of wonder
Like the wrath of thunder
When he shouts on the stormy sea

Judge Lawrence [illegible] Impeachment!

In the appendix to the Congressional Globe for the last [illegible] tion, now just published, is a speech which was not delivered in the House, but printed by permission under the rules of the [illegible] by Judge William Lawrence, of Ohio, [illegible] he summed up the grounds upon which he favored impeachment. The special significance of the language lies in the fact that Judge [illegible] is a member of the Judiciary Co[illegible] speech is therefore looked upon as [illegible] of the [illegible] upon which the [illegible] will be [illegible] if at all. The Horse, His Memory and Sagacity

An aged and venerable friend, residing in one of the cities on our eastern seaboard, a gentleman of character and worth, once related to me the following anecdote of the horse, illustrating in a [illegible] manner the sagacity and memory of this animal

At the close of the revolutionary war, when everything was unsettled and in disorder, an acquaintance residing on the Boston road, some thirty or forty miles from New York, lost a valuable young horse stolen from his stable in the night Great search and inquiry were made for him, but no tidings of him could be heard and no trace of him could ever be discovered

Almost full six years had now elapsed and the recollections of the lost animal had nearly faded from the mind At this period, a gentleman from the East in the course of business was traveling on horseback on this road, on his way to Philadelphia When within four or five miles of a village on the road the traveler was overtaken by a respectable looking gentleman on horseback, a resident of the village returning home from a short business ride Riding along side by side they soon engaged in a pleasant desultory conversation The gentleman was immediately struck with the appearance of the traveler's horse And every glance of the eye cast toward him, seemed to excite an interest and curiosity to look at him again, and to revive a recollection of something he had seen before, and soon established in his mind the impression that for all the world he looked like the horse he had lost some six years ago This soon became so irresistibly fixed in his mind that he remarked to the traveler

"You have a fine horse sir"

"Yes," he replied, "and an exceedingly valuable and excellent animal"

"What is his age, sir?"

"Well I suppose him to be about ten or eleven years old"

"You did not raise him, then?"

"No, I purchased him of a stranger, a traveler, nearly six years since"

"Do you reside in this part of the country?"

"No, I reside in the Bay State, and am on my way to Philadelphia on business How far is it to New York?"

"Well, sir, I really regret to interrupt you or put you to inconvenience, but I am constrained to say I believe you have in your possession a horse that I must claim"

The traveler looked with surprise and amazement and replied

"What do you mean, sir?"

"I believe the horse you are on, in truth, belongs to me Five years ago, the past autumn, a valuable horse was stolen from my stable Great search was made for him, but no tidings of him ever came to hand In color, appearance and movements, it seems to me he was the exact counterpart of the horse you are on. It would be hardly possible, I think, for two to be so near alike. But my horse was an uncommonly intelligent, sagacious animal And I will make a proposition to you that will place the matter in such a position that the result will be conclusive and satisfactory, I think, to both of us. We are now within a mile of my residence, which is on the road in the centre of the village before us

"When we arrive at my house, your horse shall be tied to the east post in front of my door—the horse I am on to the west post After standing a short time, the bridle of your horse shall be taken off, and if he does not go to a pair of bars on the west side of the house, and pass over and pull out a pin, and open the middle stable door and enter, I will not claim him If he does, I will furnish you conclusive evidence that he was bred by me, but never sold—that he was stolen from me just at the conclusion of the war, about the very time you say you purchased him"

The traveler assented to the trial The horse was tied to the post as proposed—stood a few minutes—the bridle was then taken off—he raised his head, pricked up his ears, looked up the street several times, then deliberately and slowly walked past the house and over the bars and to the stable door, as described, and with teeth and lip, drew out the pin and opened the door and entered into his old stall. We hardly need to add, he was recognized by his neighbors, who fully attested to the facts stated by the claimant, and that the traveler lost his title to the horse.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

In bringing the above-named new remedy to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the [illegible] of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintances, in all of which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible [illegible] from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country bringing his discovery with him, but seemed to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and widespread circulation, and as previously in his native country, [illegible] only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and after ineffectual efforts to persuade the inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation

And now while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye whether of recent or long standing; but its [illegible] power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial and so confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION &c of FIVE SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county

ALEXANDER L WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect

Mrs. MONTGOMERY of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea

E. H MOORE of the firm of Moore Garst & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad case for over fifteen years

ROBERT RAMPAY and W D PORTER of Harrisburg JOHN M HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G R WARD, of Lane County were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor s office in Harrisburg

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal B[illegible] had on my wife. She had been afflicted with a severe cough for several weeks, which had assumed a dangerous feature, for which many physicians have been trying without any material benefit, and all the [illegible] failed to give her any relief. Without relief we got I feared for the worst, in her present condition The cough appeared to be worse at night she could get no rest—when Mr Randall, of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam, all other remedies having failed. I concluded to try it, and I purchased two bottles Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief, and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous. By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked Its effect was truly miraculous, as the cure was effectual hence, I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, and it appears astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit, and I might say magical effect, is not [illegible] My candid [illegible] is, if [illegible] use it once they never be without it in the house

Vancouver, March 1, 1867 H COCHRAN.

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill, July 15, 1867

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the [illegible] and [illegible] I could get to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great [illegible] with them here) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam and finding that it relieved me considerably I sent for a half dozen more. And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been Yours truly,
WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is my duty to inform you and the public, what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children Two of them had a very bad cough and cold, I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning and that was all that was needed to cure them I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, but so it was. I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house, in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy, as it acts like magic on children What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now I shall always recommend it to all my friends for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind.
Yours truly, SOPHIA M HOLMAN

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in b[illegible], and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale But Dr Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all. In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it seems of no use to keep any other During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction
BELL & PARKER,
Druggists, Oregon City

From W. F. Barber.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir I had the Asthma for the last four years, so bad that it came near choking me I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good 'till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam which on several afflicted with the same disease has performed wonders I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since and I really believe that I am perfectly cured anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease
I am Yours truly,
W F BARBER

From J. H. Morril.

DEAR DR HENLEY—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now-a-days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine I was afflicted with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time; I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast all to no purpose I could get no relief and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam an I it had a most remarkable effect on me, and before I had used up four bottles, the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam, and I conscientiously recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial
I remain yours, truly
